Foreword

This publication lists books and other materials in the English language which relate in some way to Wales and the Welsh way of life.

Resources listed in this catalogue have been published in the last twelve years, are currently in print and are available through the Welsh Books Council's Distribution Centre.

A total of about 800 titles are included in the catalogue, and it is hoped that this list will be useful to young readers and their parents, and to teachers and librarians, as well as to members of the book trade.

The ◆ symbol denotes new titles published since 2016.

Details of all the books and resources listed in the catalogue can be seen on gwales.com – the Welsh Books Council's online ordering site.

Individuals can buy through their local bookshop or order directly from Gwales, paying by credit card over the secure server.

If schools wish to see the resources in this catalogue before purchasing, a visit by the Welsh Books Council's schools officers can be arranged.

Please contact wbc.children@books.wales for further information.

This catalogue can also be viewed as a pdf file on the Welsh Books Council's website: wbc.org.uk.
