NOT TO BE MISSED!

ANNOUNCEMENT:

Global Futures GwE Primary Team for International Languages:

Thank you ever so much to our volunteer schools who have agreed to join the GF team and become Lead schools and practitioners for International Languages in North Wales.

We will be aiming to offer support, develop our network and share good practice with all schools.

Professional learning Global Futures GwE:

Keep an eye on the GwE weekly bulletin (sign up); GwE Twitter and what your school will pass on in terms of Professional offer. The GF Team will be offering sessions on Integrating International languages in primary schools.

Lead schools will share good practice, useful and practical resources and this will be an opportunity to develop our network and discuss the issues you are facing in preparation for the New Curriculum and International languages.

Webinar: 13/1/2021

Prepare for the New Curriculum for Wales! Webinar: Power Language resources:

Power language director, Richard Tallaron, will lead two webinars in December and January:

Session 1: Tour of the website and what is on offer + practice.

2/12/20 4pm-5pm

For more information and registration, follow the link: <https://pwlg.link/2TVJ001>

Session2: How to use the Power Language course: focus on one theme and its application. Very practical and free resources provided to attendees.

February TBC

Registration details will be on the GwE website.

DILiS Digital Innovative Learning in Schools

As everyone begins to adjust to the 'new normal', DILiS aims to support schools to enhance digital teaching skills whilst helping to nurture global citizens of the future.

They are looking for innovative schools to participate in a pilot to create a worldwide network of educators.

Teachers will engage in team teaching, ideas sharing, and the development of resources to support online learning and teaching.

Through DILiS we are looking for teachers:

1. to collaboratively plan and deliver a lesson/short activity with a partner in another country.
2. to observe at least one lesson delivered by someone in another country (live or a recorded lesson)
3. to arrange an online meeting with children in at least one other country.

To be part of this exciting initiative contact International School Linking at isl@cardiff.gov.uk

Mandarin lessons for teachers:

Cardiff Confucius Institute would like to invite you to join their Mandarin for Teachers courses. The courses will be held via Zoom and are completely FREE to local Primary & Secondary school teachers.

The Language Show: 13, 14, 15 November 2020

An exclusive opportunity to access as many presentations as you want for free and from the comfort of your own home! Experts in MFL/International Languages teaching are offering a huge variety of workshops for all levels (primary and secondary) over 3 days.

Check out the programme and links to register.

The GF Team would particularly recommend the following speakers but there are many more!
Jennifer Wozniak, Joe dale, Juliet Park, Rachel Hawkes, Suzi Bewell, Lisa Stevens, Judith Rifesser.
